Among freemen there should be no masters but justice and duty and love of right and fellowman.

PALESTINE, TEXAS, SEPTEMBER 10, 1903.

The streets are already beginning to take on a Carnival air.

There will be something doing in this old town next week. Thousands of visitors will be here.

A Missouri sheriff is carrying the race war a little too far. He offers a standing reward for chicken thieves.

If you have the interest of Palestine's schools at heart you will vote for that special school tax. Election Saturday.

The golden rule should be made a part of the social fabric. A more liberal application of this rule should be made right here in Palestine.

The Austin Tribune and News have been consolidated under the ownership and management of Mr. C. F. Gydeson, and will be known as the Tribune and News. Both were already good afternoon papers, and consolidated they reflect credit upon Austin.

WHAT DOES JONES KNOW ABOUT THIS?

A Day Old Baby Found in San Francisco is a Mystery.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from San Francisco says: The body of a day-old infant has been found at North Beach with a cord about its neck, showing it had been strangled. The body was wrapped in a copy of the Buffalo Evening Times, on which was a yellow label reading: "Hon. J. K. Jones, Washington, Arkansas, Evening Bulletin." This was wrapped in a copy of a San Francisco newspaper. The police are trying to find who has arrived recently from Arkansas and what connection the former chairman of the democratic national committee has with the case.

SHE LOSES TRACK OF HUSBAND'S CORPSE

A Woman Travels a Long Distance With Stranger's Body.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 9.—Believing that the body of her husband was in the baggage car of the same train on which she arrived in Cincinnati this morning from Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. John A. Zeigler was horrified to learn from the station authorities here that the corpse she had accompanied from at least as far as Kansas City was that of a woman consigned to a different destination.

John A. Zeigler, a prominent Cincinnati man, died in Los Angeles last Saturday and Saturday evening the body was placed on board the train. It is believed the two bodies were transposed at Kansas City.

The railroad officials are making every effort to secure the missing remains.

Favors the Tax

Alderman Sam Howard left last night for Atlantic City, N. J. Before leaving the city, Mr. Howard said he desired the Herald to put him on record as favoring the special school tax and hoped it would carry.

Coffee Pot Exploded.

Central Valley, Conn., Sept. 9.—The explosion of a coffee pot severely injured Mrs. Sibley yesterday. Friends visited her, and she proudly brought forth the copper pot, a patent one, which was a gift. She poured more water than usual in the lower chamber, screwed on the cover and lighted the lamp.

For some reason the steam did not escape, and as Mrs. Sibley was about to serve the coffee the pot exploded. Her hands and face were frightfully burned, and had she not worn spectacles she would probably have been blinded.

The County Exhibit.

Mr. Hernando Wood, chairman of committee on Anderson county exhibit, requests the Herald to urge every farmer, gardener and orchardist in the county to contribute to the Anderson county exhibit at the Carnival. Bring in specimens, and report to Mr. Wood at once.
